

Brand USA's 2024 Board of Directors Announced

January 11, 2024

WASHINGTON, D.C. (January 11, 2024) — Brand USA, the nation's destination marketing organization, today shared the individuals who will make up its 2024 board of directors. Consisting of both newly appointed and re-appointed individuals, the board plays a pivotal role in steering Brand USA's mission and operations.

The 11-member board is appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Commerce in consultation with the U.S. Secretaries of State and Homeland Security. Each director represents a travel and tourism industry sector and can serve a maximum of two consecutive three-year terms.

The newly appointed [and re-appointed] members include:

- State Tourism Office: Mike Mangeot, Commissioner, Kentucky Department of Tourism (New appointment)
- Travel Distribution Services sector: Hari Nair, Global SVP, Lodging Partners, Expedia Group (New appointment)
- Small Business or Retail sector: Kristen Esposito, Principal, Esposito Global Partners (Reappointment)

Under the continued leadership of Todd Davidson, who will serve a second term as Board Chair, the organization is set to embark on its next chapter, undergoing a brand refresh and leading an executive search for the organization's next CEO.

"This is an exciting time for Brand USA. In 2024, a primary focus of the board's will be to identify a new CEO who can continue the incredible work started by Chris Thompson and guide us into the future," said Todd Davidson, Brand USA board chair and chief executive officer of Travel Oregon. "I'm honored to continue as Board Chair and lead this remarkable team through these transitions. Together, we are committed to ensuring the USA maintains its global competitive edge and that our mission remains unwavering."

Chris Thompson, who has led the organization for the past 12 years as president and CEO, expressed his enthusiasm for the continuation of Davidson's leadership, saying, "I have full confidence in Todd's ability to lead the Brand USA Board of Directors into the future, beyond my retirement. His dedication and vision have been instrumental in our creation and past successes, and I'm certain he will continue to guide the organization on a path of continued growth."

"Additionally, I'm thrilled to welcome the newly appointed members to the board. Their diverse backgrounds and expertise promise to bring fresh ideas and perspectives that will contribute to the continued success of Brand USA," said Thompson.

About Brand USA

Brand USA, the destination marketing organization for the United States, was established by the Travel Promotion Act as the nation's first public-private partnership to promote the United States as a premier travel destination and to communicate U.S. travel policies and procedures to worldwide travelers. The organization's mission is to increase international visitation to the United States in order to fuel the U.S. economy and enhance the image of the United States worldwide. Formed as the Corporation for Travel Promotion in 2010, the public-private entity began operations in May 2011 and does business as Brand USA. According to studies by Oxford Economics, over the past ten years Brand USA's marketing initiatives have helped welcome 8 million incremental visitors to the United States, benefiting the U.S. economy with more than $58 billion in total economic impact and supporting, on average, more than 37,000 incremental jobs a year.
