

What's New in the USA for 2026: Spring Update

March 16, 2026

RIO DE JANEIRO, BRAZIL (March 16, 2025) — As the United States approaches its 250th anniversary, 2026 is shaping up to be a landmark year across the country. As the nation's destination marketing organization, Brand USA invites global travelers to discover what's new—from major new attractions and luxury hotels to milestone cultural events and expanded international air service. With so much on the horizon, travelers will find new reasons to explore every corner of the U.S.

"Across the United States, destinations are unveiling what's next—from transformative new products and live events to reimagined visitor experiences—creating fresh energy and reasons to visit. When combined with mega events on deck like the FIFA World Cup, America's 250th, and the Route 66 centennial, new offerings heighten demand. For international travelers looking to enjoy what's hot and trending, the moment to start planning a trip to the USA is now," said Fred Dixon, president and CEO of Brand USA.

MAJOR EVENTS ACROSS THE COUNTRY

Across the U.S. this year, major milestones including the FIFA World Cup 2026, America's 250th anniversary, the Route 66 Centennial, are expected to generate increased global interest in visiting the country

FIFA World Cup 2026 will bring matches to 11 U.S. host cities including Atlanta, Boston, Dallas, Houston, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Miami, New York/New Jersey, Philadelphia, San Francisco Bay Area, and Seattle.
