

Now Streaming: Brand USA Launches Giant Screen Film “America’s Musical Journey” on GoUSA TV

WASHINGTON, DC - November 21, 2019

International audiences can stream the film and new companion series, “America’s Treasures: Musical Cities” subscription-free, ahead of the holiday season

Brand USA, the destination marketing organization for the United States, announces the global streaming launch of “America’s Musical Journey,” presented in partnership with Expedia Group and Air Canada, on Brand USA’s travel entertainment network, GoUSA TV. The film, which first premiered in IMAX® and giant screen theaters in 2018, stars Grammy Award®-nominated singer and songwriter Aloe Blacc. Throughout the film, Blacc takes audiences on a cross-country adventure exploring the musical heritage of the United States and the cultural cities where American music was born. To celebrate the streaming launch, Brand USA will host premiere events in New Delhi and Mumbai, India, on Nov. 19 and Nov. 21, respectively.

Also coming to GoUSA TV today is “America’s Treasures: Musical Cities.” The new, four-episode series was created and produced by award-winning filmmakers MacGillivray Freeman Films, who also produced the documentary. The series is an extension of “America’s Musical Journey” and delves deeper into iconic music cities such as Memphis, Tennessee; New Orleans, Louisiana; Miami, Florida; and Chicago, Illinois.

- Memphis: Known as the home of blues and the birthplace of rock ‘n’ roll, viewers will discover awe-inspiring local street dancers and resident Barney Stoll who has been sky diving and jumping out of airplanes dressed as Elvis alongside the skydiving Elvis team.
- New Orleans: Viewers will uncover the tales behind the city that created jazz. From a vibrant live-music scene to the spicy, melting pot of French, African, and American culture and history, “The Big Easy” will dazzle taste buds and ear drums.
- Miami: In a city deeply tied to Latin-Caribbean heritage, Miami’s culture unfolds across traditional Latin Afro Cuban musical influences, such as salsa and merengue, to the modern electronic sounds of today. Emily Estefan, daughter of music icon, Gloria Estefan, is also featured.
- Chicago: A bustling metropolis with cultural pioneers such as jazz pianist Ramsey Lewis and dancers Eddie “Pause Eddie” Martin Jr., and Donetta Jackson. Eddie introduces viewers to a unique dance form called “Chicago Footwork” which combines African tribal influences, breakdancing, and tap.

“GoUSA TV offers us the ability to stream inspirational, USA-specific content to people around the world,” said Christopher L. Thompson, president and CEO of Brand USA. “‘America’s Musical Journey’ and ‘America’s Treasures: Musical Cities’ provide a lens into how our music is engrained in the fabric of cities and towns across the country and will motivate viewers to come and experience these destinations for themselves.”

GoUSA TV is available for streaming on Roku, Amazon Fire, and Apple TV, or via the iOS store and Google Play on smartphone devices.

About Brand USA

Brand USA, the destination marketing organization for the United States, was established by the Travel Promotion Act as the nation's first public-private partnership to promote the United States as a premier travel destination and to communicate U.S. travel policies and procedures to worldwide travelers. The organization's mission is to increase international visitation to the United States in order to fuel the U.S. economy and enhance the image of the United States worldwide. Formed as the Corporation for Travel Promotion in 2010, the public-private entity began operations in May 2011 and does business as Brand USA. According to studies by Oxford Economics, over the past ten years Brand USA's marketing initiatives have helped welcome 8 million incremental visitors to the United States, benefiting the U.S. economy with more than $58 billion in total economic impact and supporting, on average, more than 37,000 incremental jobs a year.
