

Jennie is a 30-year-old disabled content creator who documents her day to day life as a wheelchair user online to her community of over 100,000 followers. Jennie has a particular interest in accessible travel and focuses her content on her adventures around the world, highlighting both the good and bad, whilst sharing tips and advice for others wanting to explore the world too.

