Overview

Travel across the USA promises an abundance of possibilities, opportunities and adventures. International travelers are invited to explore the breadth of landscapes from rugged shorelines to vibrant metropolises; to enjoy the diversity of cultural experiences from epicurean journeys to musical trails; to watch exhilarating sports tournaments where hoops are shot and touchdowns scored and to connect with local communities so they dive beneath the surface of destination and write their own travel story in the USA.

This quarterly calendar provides a snapshot of upcoming travel routes, openings, and things to see and do across the country.

In addition to nationwide events, the calendar is divided into five geographical regions:

- Northeast (Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Washington, D.C., Delaware, Maryland, and Pennsylvania)
- Midwest (Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, and Kansas)
- South (Virginia, West Virginia, Missouri, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, and Oklahoma)
- West (Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Nevada, California, Oregon, Washington, Alaska, and Hawaii)
- U.S. Territories (Puerto Rico, Guam, U.S. Virgin Islands, Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa)

Stories fall within the following categories:

- Planes, Trains, and Automobiles: Highlighting new transport links and routes that connect travelers to the U.S. gateways and beyond
- Hotel Openings / News
- Museums / Cultural Experiences
- Attractions: Debut of theme park rides and milestone moments at major amusement parks
- Festivals: Multi-day events celebrating food, music, and art
- Sports
- Film and T.V.: Television shows and movie premieres with a specific tie to a U.S. location, and films celebrating prominent milestones.

What to See and Do Across the USA (OCTOBER 2022–JANUARY 2023)
Nationwide

- Hotel Openings / News
  - 2022: 60th Anniversary of Kampgrounds of America (KOA): From pitching a tent to parking an RV on a cross-country road trip, KOA offers a wide variety of campsites in over 525 locations across North America. KOA recently launched a luxury glamping experience (Terramor Outdoor Resort) in Bar Harbor, Maine, with additional locations in the pipeline. Terramor combines the adventure of a camping experience with the amenities of a resort, offering guests the opportunity to explore Acadia National Park or the seaside villages of Maine and return to the glamping retreat for evening cocktails around a warm campfire.

- Museums / Cultural Experiences
  - October: Filipino-American History Month: The celebration of Filipino American History Month in October commemorates the first recorded presence of Filipinos in the continental United States, which occurred on 18 October, 1587, when “Luzones Indios” came ashore from the Spanish galleon Nuestra Senora de Esperanza and landed at what is now Morro Bay, California.
  - October: LGBT History Month: LGBT History Month celebrates the achievements of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender icons. On 11 October, members of the LGBTQ+ community honor National Coming Out Day as a reminder of the National March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights, and to celebrate individuals who have come out as LGBTQ+.
  - 11 Nov: Veteran’s Day (free entry to National Parks): Many national parks have direct connections to the American military—there are dozens of battlefields, military parks, and historic sites that commemorate and honor the service of American veterans. The National Park Service invites all visitors to remember U.S. veterans by visiting any National Park Service site for free on Veterans Day (11 November).
  - 16 Jan: Martin Luther King Jr. Day (free entry to National Parks): In honor of the Birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr., National Park Service sites will waive entrance fees for everyone on Monday, January 17, 2022, as the first fee free day of the year. Commemorated on the third Monday of January every year, it is also a day of service when hundreds of volunteers participate in service projects at parks across the country.

Museums / Cultural Experiences

- 9 Oct - 18 Feb, 2023, New York, N.Y.: Just Above Midtown: 1974 to the Present at the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA) shares artwork created by African-American artists and artists of color during Just Above Midtown (JAM)'s premiere years of 1974-1986. JAM was an art gallery and self-described laboratory led by Linda Goode Bryant, and was known as a place where black art flourished and debate was cultivated. The gallery offered early opportunities for artists now recognized as pivotal figures in late-20th-century art, including David Hammons, Butch Morris, Senga Nengudi, Lorraine O'Grady, and Howardena Pindell.

- 15 Oct - 8 Jan, Pittsburgh, Penn.: The American Perspectives: Stories from the American Folk Art Museum Collection exhibition at the Frick Collection uses a selection of paintings, sculpture, and other objects as vehicles to tell the story of the vital role folk art plays as a witness to history, marker of cultural heritage, and a reflection of the world at large. This exhibit looks at the continuum of self-taught art across time and place from the earliest days of the founding of our nation to the present.

- 16 Oct - 29 Jan, Philadelphia, Penn.: Modigliani Up Close at the Barnes Foundation explores Amedeo Modigliani’s working methods and materials. Building on research that began in 2017, with a major retrospective at Tate Modern, this focused project takes a close look at how Modigliani created his works. New scholarship by specialists across Europe and the Americas informs a detailed investigation of the artist’s unique style, casting new light on his practice, in an exhibition that brings together important pieces from museum collections.

- 31 Oct, New York, N.Y.: New York City’s 49th Annual Village Halloween Parade is one of the most famous Halloween events in the United States and the largest Halloween parade in the world, attracting over two million spectators and 60,000 parade participants. While the event is free to spectators, you can also participate in the parade as long as you wear a costume.

- 18-20 Nov, Plymouth, Mass.: America’s Hometown Thanksgiving Celebration takes place on the third weekend of November each year, and draws its name from the traditional location of the “First Thanksgiving” between the pilgrims and Native Americans in Plymouth, MA. Festivities include historical reenactments, themed concerts, parades and a food festival where Thanksgiving lovers can sample traditional New England seasonal fare at its finest.

- 18-20, 25-27 Nov & 1-4, 8-11, 15-18 Dec, Bethlehem, Penn.: Christkindlmarkt Bethlehem returns featuring 60 artisans and craftspeople, performances, delicious food, St. Nicholas, and the return of popular German ornament manufacturer Käthe Wohlfahrt. ● Attractions
  o Now - until 27 Nov, Washington, DC: One With Eternity: Yayoi Kusama in the Hirshhorn Collection showcases the Hirshhorn’s permanent collection of works by Kusama, including two of her Infinity Mirror Rooms that create a sensation of never-ending space. These rooms are exhibited alongside an early painting; sculptures, including Pumpkin (2016) and Flowers—Overcoat (1964); and photographs of the artist. This exhibition honors Kusama’s distinctive vision of self-obliteration by exploring its development across media while also underscoring the Museum’s mission: to present the most exciting art and ideas of our time.

  o Spring 2023, Harlem, N.Y.: Harlem's most famous venue, The Apollo, will unveil two new performance spaces - marking the landmark's largest expansion in decades. Located on the third and fourth floor of the Victoria Theater Redevelopment Project and first announced in 2018, the expansion of the theater will provide a space to celebrate Harlem’s cultural heritage while allowing the Apollo to expand its educational, artistic and community programmes. The Victoria Theater will also host local artists and Harlem-based arts organizations, giving them a chance to develop performance work in a professional-level theater space.

  o 2023, Harlem, N.Y.: Alkebulan, which is the oldest name for Africa, is envisioned as a cultural and culinary movement that celebrates the untapped cuisine of the African continent. It is the project of Harlem-based Chef Alexander Small, the James Beard award-winning visionary of The Cecil and its sister restaurant Minton’s. Alkebulan will open in uptown Harlem highlighting ten food stalls from around the continent, as well as featuring music and art.

  o 2023, New York, N.Y.: The Ronald O. Perelman Performing Arts Center (PAC) will constitute a unique venue for theater, dance, music, and chamber opera. It will offer artists new kinds of theatrical design possibilities and new opportunities to create innovative multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary work. Located at the World Trade Center, the PAC will celebrate life and humanity, redefining Lower Manhattan as a cultural destination and serving as a living testament to the power of the arts to inspire and unite. A home for creativity, the PAC will produce and present all forms of performance.

● Festivals
  o Now - until 12 Nov, Philadelphia, Penn.: Halloween Nights at Eastern State Penitentiary is an immersive experience featuring five haunted houses, historic tours, themed bars and lounges and live entertainment all within the walls of a real, abandoned 10-acre prison. There are also opportunities for shopping, a curated selection of unique Halloween merchandise and décor, plus Halloween treats and festival eats throughout. All proceeds from Halloween Nights benefit the preservation and interpretation of Eastern State Penitentiary, a National Historic Landmark.

  o 2022, Washington, D.C.: Giant pandas have iconic status in Washington, D.C. and are beloved around the world. ● Museums / Cultural Experiences o Now - until 5 Sept, Chicago, Ill.: Cézanne, an upcoming exhibition at the Art Institute of Chicago, will span the full career of the artist, featuring 90 oil paintings, 40 works on paper, and two sketchbooks on display. Notably, exhibition lender Jasper Johns, the American abstract expressionist, will be sending three key watercolors (plus an oil painting of a nude to Chicago only) from his personal collection.
  o October 2022, Anoka, Minn.: Known as the “Halloween Capital of the World,” Anoka is believed to be the first city in the United States to put on a Halloween celebration. Throughout the month, city visitors can partake in a Grand Day parade and nighttime parade, house decorating contests, a bonfire, the Anoka Classic Car Show Spooktacular, the BloodMobile Blood Drive, a Pumpkin Weigh-Off, a pumpkin carving contest for kids, and a pumpkin smashing.
  o 1-3 Nov, Rantoul, Ill.: The World Championship Punkin Chunkin returns with a new location in Rantoul, Illinois. This event pits the world champions of hurling or 'chucking' a pumpkin solely by mechanical means for distance with their device of choice - including slingshots, catapults, centrifugals, trebuchets, and pneumatic (air) cannons.
  o 24 Nov, Detroit, Mich.: The Strategic Staffing Solutions (S3) Turkey Trot has been a Detroit tradition for the past 39 years. Much more than a variety of races (10k/5k/1 mile and combo events), thousands of participants dress in costumes for the event. Often declared “The Parade before The Parade,” participants frolic by the largest spectator crowd in Michigan.

● Festivals
  o 10 Sept - 31 Oct, Shakopee, Minn.: Sever’s Fall Festival, celebrating 25 years of autumn festival fun, is the Midwest’s original autumn festival fun, and home to its first and largest corn maze. The whimsical festivities also include obstacle courses, an exotic petting zoo, and zip lines.
  o 30 Sept - 2 Oct, Decorah, Iowa: This year marks the 25th anniversary of the Northeastern Iowa Artists’ Studio Tour, where visitors can take a self-guided “art-venture” to explore 35 artists in 27 locations throughout northeastern Iowa. Discover the tools, inspirations, and surroundings where art begins!
  o 7-9 Oct, St. Charles, Ill.: As the name suggests, the St. Charles Scarecrow Festival is dedicated to all things related to scarecrows, including a downtown walk through St. Charles during the Scarecrow Stroll, as well as a family zone and the opportunity to buy a DIY Scarecrow in a Box.
  o 12-23 Oct, Chicago, Ill.: The 58th Annual Chicago International Film Festival is North America’s longest-running competitive film festival, featuring over 80 films and 60 short films from around the world. Check out the festival’s website for films to be featured this year.

● Sports
  o 9 Oct, Chicago, Ill.: The Bank of America Chicago Marathon invites 45,000 participants to race through the Windy City in 6.5 hours or less, passing major landmarks such as Wrigley Field, the United Center, and Soldier Field. In addition to running, participants have the opportunity to fundraise for a charity partner - with more than 106,000 runners raising over $207M for local, national and global causes since 2002. The Chicago Marathon is the fourth-largest race by number of finishers worldwide, and recognized as one of the six World Marathon Majors.

  - Ongoing, Forestville, Calif.: Located within The Farmhouse Inn, Farmstand is a Michelin-rated restaurant with a newly redesigned kitchen and the installation of Chef de Cuisine Shawn Jackson Clark overseeing a revamped fine dining program. Featuring primarily outdoor dining, with bubbly Neapolitan pizzas, wood-fired cooking and shareable plates, the concept was inspired by a previous foray into all-day dining at the Forestville Inn. The new concept takes advantage of the property’s woodsy charm. The Farmstand menu is entirely a la carte, with fresh vegetable dishes with many from co-owner Joe Bartolomei’s garden. Farmhouse and Farmstand dining experiences are both open to the public.
  - 1 Oct, Denver, Colo.: Ball Arena, home to the Denver Nuggets, Colorado Avalanche, and Colorado Mammoth, will host English indie rock band Florence + the Machine as part of the band’s Dance Fever tour.
  - 1 Oct, San Francisco, Calif.: Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA) San Francisco will be the latest edition to San Francisco’s art scene. This free, non collecting contemporary art museum is dedicated to prioritizing artists over art holdings, individuals over institutions, and equity and expansion of the canon. Its curatorial approach will spotlight and celebrate international and Bay Area artists. The 11,000-square-foot space will open with Jeffrey Gibson’s This Burning World, an immersive and excavatory site-specific installation and video work. Complementing the international debut of This Burning World, the ICA SF will present Resting our Eyes, a group show by guest co-curators and activists Tahirah Rasheed and Autumn Breon.

- Now - until 9 Oct, Los Angeles, Calif.: Lee Alexander McQueen: Mind, Mythos, Muse at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art is the first McQueen exhibition on the West Coast, contextualizing the designer’s imaginative work within a canon of artmakers who drew upon analogous themes and visual references. Exploring imagination, artistic process, and innovation in fashion and art, the exhibition examines the interdisciplinary impulse that defined the designer’s career. Displaying select McQueen garments from the Collection of Regina J. Drucker alongside artworks largely from LACMA’s permanent collection, Mind, Mythos, Muse presents a case study of the designer’s methods and influences, and in doing so, provides the opportunity to better understand artistic legacy and cycles of inspiration.

- 29 Oct - 14 May 2023, Portland, Ore.: Dakota Modern: The Art of Oscar Howe at the Portland Art Museum introduces new generations to one of the 20th century’s most innovative Native American painters. Howe (1915–1983) committed his artistic career to the preservation, relevance, and ongoing expression of his Yanktonai Dakota culture. He proved that art could be simultaneously modern and embedded in customary Očhéthi Šakówiŋ (Sioux) culture and aesthetics—to him there was no contradiction. Howe challenged the art establishment’s preconceptions and definitions of Native American painting. In doing so, he catalyzed a movement among Native artists to express their individuality rather than conforming to an established style.

- 30 Oct, Coarsegold, Calif.: The 25th Annual Tarantula Awareness Festival embraces autumn mating season for the local California brown tarantulas, which emerge this time of year to find a mate, then burrow away for the winter. Now - until 8 Jan, San Francisco, Calif.: Walt Disney’s The Jungle Book: Making a Masterpiece at the Walt Disney Family Museum is guest-curated by acclaimed animator and Disney Legend Andreas Deja. The original exhibition explores the creative complexities behind the making of The Jungle Book in 1967 and the film’s enduring popularity on its 55th anniversary. It encompasses the unique personalities of each character and their voice actor counterparts, the rich artwork and use of cutting-edge animation techniques, the memorable soundtrack of original songs by the Sherman Brothers and Terry Gilkyson, the impact of Walt’s passing during production, and the film’s enduring popularity and influence decades after its initial release.

Now - until 16 Jan 2023, Grand Canyon Village, Ariz.: The Grand Canyon Celebration of Art is a tradition at Grand Canyon National Park providing a vibrant experience for visitors, a venue for artists inspired by the canyon, and a successful fundraiser to benefit a dedicated art venue at the park. Founded in 2009, CoA invites participating artists to paint “en plein air” for a week at the South Rim of Grand Canyon. Artists are tasked with capturing the ever-changing colors and light as the sun moves across the intricate layers of the canyon. Paintings produced during this special event are shared with the public during a four-month sale and exhibition online and at Historic Kolb Studio.

Now - until 12 Feb, 2023, San Francisco, Calif.: The de Young museum is the exclusive West Coast venue for the international touring exhibition Ramses the Great and the Gold of the Pharaohs. The show is the first new exhibition dedicated to Egyptian ruler Ramses II in 30 years and is the first to be presented in San Francisco. Once the exhibition completes its international tour, the objects – many newly discovered and having never left Egypt before – will return to Egyptian museums and will not likely travel again for decades. The exhibition features exquisite sculpture, precious treasures, and state-of-the-art multimedia production that will demonstrate the opulence and power of ancient Egyptian civilization.

Now - until 19 Feb, 2023, Los Angeles, Calif.: The Space Between: The Modern in Korean Art at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art covers the years 1897 to 1965, loosely organized chronologically, stylistically, and conceptually. The second of three major Korean art exhibitions of Hyundai Motor’s Korean Art Scholarship initiative, The Space Between spans the arc of European-influenced art via Japan in the Korean Empire (1897–1910) and colonial period (1910–45), explores American influences absorbed throughout the Korean War (1950–53), and provides a glimpse into the beginning of the contemporary. Featuring approximately 130 works that reflect the influx of foreign-introduced new media, the exhibition includes oils, ink, photography, and sculpture.

● Hotel Openings / News:
  o Late Autumn 2022, St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands: The Westin Beach Resort and Spa at Fisherman’s Reef will offer 392 rooms, including 28 suites, most of which will offer ocean views, along with six restaurants and lounges, three ocean-view pools; a Heavenly Spa by Westin with 13 treatment rooms and 72,000 square feet of meeting and event space. The hotel will also have a private dock with access to nearby islands and a “private adventure beach.” It will be the second Westin-branded resort in the U.S. Virgin Islands, joining the existing Westin St John Resort Villas on neighboring St John.
  o December 2022, St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands: The Seaborn (aka Noni Beach), a St. Thomas Resort, Autograph Collection offers pet-friendly rooms with plush bedding, scenic views, and locally inspired decor. Savor Caribbean cuisine in an outdoor setting at Isla Blue and unwind with drinks by the ocean at Coco's Beach Club. Guests can unwind at the outdoor pool and fitness center, along with a full service spa. The facility also includes over 18,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor event space for weddings, meetings, and more special occasions.

● Museums / Cultural Experiences:
  o 24 Dec, Puerto Rico: During Christmas Eve, known as Nochebuena, people gather with their families and friends to eat lechón and arroz con gandules (roast pork and rice with pigeon peas), drink coquito (like eggnog but coconut-based), and sing trullas (Christmas songs usually accompanied by drums, maracas, and güiros).

● Festivals:
  o End of November, Jayayu, Puerto Rico: The Festival Nacional Indígena celebrates Puerto Rico's indigenous roots and the influence of Taíno culture and traditions. The town of Jayuya was named after one of the big caciques, or chiefs, that lived on the Island when the Spanish arrived in the 1500s and where Taíno hieroglyphs were found carved into a giant boulder. The Taínos were eradicated by the Spanish but their influence is still present in Puerto Rican culture.
  o Dec - Jan, St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands: The Crucian Christmas Festival (or Carnival) is a month-long celebration incorporating modern day celebrations with standing traditions. Carnival takes place on many Caribbean islands at different times of the year, on St. Croix it starts in December and culminates the first week of January near Three Kings Day. These holiday traditions date back to the early 1800s when enslaved Africans were allowed time off to celebrate Christmas. During this time they dressed up in costumes, paraded through the streets, and visited other plantations. There was also dancing, music and general merrymaking. In 1952, these traditions were revived into an annual organized festival of events we’ve come to know as the Crucian Christmas Carnival.
  o 13-16 Jan, Old San Juan, Puerto Rico: One of the most anticipated parties of the year and the unofficial close of the holiday season, the Fiestas de la Calle San Sebastián takes over Old San Juan. During the day, plazas are filled to the brim with artists and artisans; some have stages for live music, dance, and circus performances. In the evening, the party ignites, and the street fills with people and music.
16 Jan, San Sebastián, Puerto Rico: A novilla is a heifer, and it is the focus of the Festival de la Novilla in San Sebastián, a rural town on the west side of the Island. Celebrated on Sunday, live bands perform everything from folk music to salsa, artisans, and fried food vendors occupy the town square, and amusement park rides are set up. A cow is decked out in a crown of flowers and leads a parade through the town where scenes of country life are depicted on elaborate floats. The Festival de la Novilla closes with a concert of traditional music.
